Important information

Reserve your spot

Due to limited availability, it is important to reserve by making a deposit of US$2,000 before September 30, 2024, and sending the payment receipt to the email: callcentertesoreria@zamorano.edu, with a copy to your admissions advisor with the full name of the applicant.

Currency

Payments must be made in United States dollars, except for Honduran students who can pay in Lempiras according to the sales rate established by the Central Bank of Honduras (BCH).

Mandatory Deposits

- Foreign students who do not have a return ticket to their country of origin must deposit the value of the ticket in the treasury (see the welcome sheet for ticket prices).
- The special stay permit process has a cost of US$100, which must be deposited into authorized accounts.

Annual Adjustments

The enrollment fee is subject to annual adjustments for inflationary reasons, according to Zamorano's policies.

Graduation and Degree Fees

In the last year of study, a payment of US$500 must be made for degree rights, title incorporation, and graduation (payment deadline is June 30, 2028).

Discounts

Inquire about discounts for the children of alumni and institution staff. In both cases, these discounts will be conditioned on meeting Zamorano's requirements.

Financial Aid

Zamorano maintains a financial aid program for students with academic merits and limited economic capacity. This allows partial or total coverage of the annual fee (all-inclusive program). Financial aid applications will be received until August 30, 2024. For more information, visit our website: <https://www.zamorano.edu>
